Plaza Home Mortgage, Inc. Raises Over $411,000 For Susan G. Komen San Diego

San Diego, CA – October 4th, 2017 – October marks the beginning of a month focused on spreading breast cancer awareness. For the sixth straight year, Plaza Home Mortgage, Inc., a national lender headquartered in San Diego, announces it will again actively support the Susan G. Komen organization. Earlier this year, Plaza donated $86,004 based on the 2016 October loan volume commitment. To date, Plaza has contributed over $411,000 for Susan G. Komen San Diego, making Plaza their largest corporate contributor.

"We are proud to be Susan G. Komen San Diego's largest corporate contributor, as breast cancer has impacted the lives of many Plaza associates and their family members," said Kevin Parra, president of Plaza. "It is an honor to partner with Susan G. Komen San Diego each year, and our annual donation is a testament of our commitment to making a difference in the lives of women facing breast cancer."

Each year, Plaza's donation amount is based on October loan volume and is the result of the extraordinary support of Plaza associates and clients nationwide. The donation represents the efforts of its associates and customers from 12 regional offices, two divisions and corporate headquarters. Donations like Plaza's help Susan G. Komen San Diego provide free diagnostic mammograms, life-saving screenings, temporary financial aid for living expenses, transportation, meal deliveries, education and more.

"Plaza Home Mortgage is a model for corporate philanthropy and making an impact in the communities where they do business," said Shaina Gross, president and CEO, Susan G. Komen San Diego. "Plaza's company culture of giving back has saved and improved thousands of lives--we couldn't be more grateful."

This month, Plaza will again sponsor a free mammogram event for underserved women. Individuals who are underinsured or uninsured are encouraged to obtain breast cancer screenings at this event.
